L'ARTE DI VIVERE SECONDO
ANGELO GARINI

A photograph of two young children on a large, textured rug. The rug features a repeating pattern of dark, wavy lines on a light background. One child is lying on their back, wearing a white long-sleeved shirt and blue jeans, with their hands behind their head. The other child is sitting on the rug, also in a white shirt, looking towards the camera. The rug has a fringed edge at the bottom.
